OPIC_Schoenbauser Dame_Airfield DATE OF CONTENT_2 to 16 September 1953 DATE OF CONTE	COUNTRY	East Germany
AMALIATION 25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1 MATE OF CONTENT 2 to 16 September 1953 MATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 8 October 1953 DATE PREPARED 8 OCT	TOPIC Scho	enhauser Damm mirfield		The second section of the second section of the second section of the second section s		BERTHANNEN ALLENGTON THE BANKETON SERVEN SER	EQC1077
DATE OF CONTENT 2 to 16 September 1953 ATE OBTAINED	EVALUATION	25X1
DATE PREPARED 8 October 1953 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 1. On 2 September 1952, individual soldiers were observed near the temporary buildings at Schoenhauser Damm sirticals. The piles of runway mats were not inchanged. In one to had been laid. A six-wire telephone line was observed running both from Schoenhausen and Wudcke to the airfield. In Schoenhausen bere was a mast with a plactform and a box in which the lines met. One line each extended from the mast toward Havelberg and toward Standal via the Elbe River. A convascovered radio truck without an antenna was observed at a wall next to the mast, and next to the radio truck was a tent for about 12 men. 25X1 2. On 11 September, two temporary buildings and several piles of runway mats were observed at the field on the ground which was surrounded by a fence about 2.5 meters high. Work was apparently being conducted in the temporary buildings. Trucks 25X1 25X1 25X1 3. A telephone line or 6 wires, suspended on newly erected wooden masts, extended along the southern edge of Waddoke-Schoenhauser Damm road. About 1 km from Schoenhauser Damm, Soviet soldiers wearing red-bordered black epuals to worked on the extension of the line toward Schoenhauser Damm. 25X1 4. At 11 a.m. on 16 September, about 15 soldiers, wearing black-bordered blue analysts, unloaded runway mats from two boxcars at 'Waddoke realized station. The runway mats were southern edge of the installetion. At 1215 p.m., the two prime novers towing two trailers each. The nats were stored near the temporary buildings on the southern edge of the installetion. At 1215 p.m., the two prime novers and the truck with the hotstire gear, which had been used near the realized station,	,					n (gav.communicials rup mic populars offen Trum Symbol C depoka y 1946 de digilika rub	ME NICO
25X1 25X1 25X1 1. On 2 September 1952, individual soldiers were observed near the temporary buildings at Schoenhauser Damm sirfield. The piles of runway mats were unchanged. six-wire tolephone line was observed running both from Schoenhausen and Wuddoke to the airfield. In Schoenhausen there was a mast with a platform and a box in which the lines net. One line each extended from the mast toward Havelberg and toward Standal via the Eibe River. A canvascovered racial truck without an antenna was observed at a wall next to the mast, and next to the radio truck was a tent for about 12 men. 25X1 2. On 11 September, two temporary buildings and several piles of runway mats were observed at the field on the ground which was surrounded by a fence about 2.5 meters high. Nork was apparently being conducted in the temporary buildings. Trucks and several piles of runway mats were observed at the field on the ground which was surrounded by a fence about 2.5 meters high. Nork was apparently being conducted in the temporary buildings. Trucks apparently being conducted in the temporary buildings apparently being conducted in the temporary buildings are apparently being conducted in the apparently being conducted in the armicles apparently being conducted in the temporary buildings on the southern edge of the installetion. At 1215 p.m., the two prime novers und the truck with the botsting sear, which had been lack end attain.	7		DATE P	REPARED	8 October	1953	LOTE OF
PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) 25X1 25X1 1. On 2 September 1952, individual soldiers were observed near the temporary buildings at Schoenhauser Damm eirfield. The piles of runway mats were unchanged. In one was a mast with a platifier of the airfield. In Schoenhausen there was a mast with a platifier mand a box in which the lines net. One line each extended from the mast toward Havelberg and toward Stendal via the Eibe River. A convescovered radio truck without an antenne was observed at a wall next to the mast, and next to the radio truck was a tent for about 12 men. 25X1 2. On 11 September, two temporary buildings and several piles of runway mats were observed at the field on the ground which was surrounded by a fence about 2.5 meters high. Nork was apparently being conducted in the temporary buildings. Trucks and cateryillar trucks tors towing low-platform trailers loaded with runway mats were observed passing through the entrance to the field coming from the direction of Muddicke. Several piles of runway mats were observed on the area of Muddicke railroad station. 3. A telephone line or 6 wires, suspended on newly erected wooden masts, extended along the southern edge of Mudicke-Schoenhauser Damm. 25X1 4. At 11 a.m. on 16 September, about 15 soldiers, wearing black-bordered blue enhances and mats were stored near the temporary buildings on the southern edge of the installation. At 1215 p.m., the two prime novers and the truck with the boisting sear, which had been used near the railroad station, which had been used near the railroad station.		25X1				•
25X1 25X1 1. On 2 September 1952, individual soldiers were observed near the temporary buildings at Schoenhauser Damm sirfield. The piles of runway mats were unchanged.			NO. & TYPE)		·	ninga crypn comin yn weddwyn ffyncau'r garllaet y r ceiddol adderado a'i badwnio eilar ceid
25X1 25X1 1. On 2 September 1952, individual soldiers were observed near the temporary buildings at Schoenhauser Damm sirfield. The piles of runway mats were unchanged. no mats had been laid. A six-wire telephone line was observed running both from Schoenhausen and Wudicke to the airfield. In Schoenhausen there was a mast with a platform and a box in which the lines met. One line each extended from the mast toward Havelberg and toward Stendel via the Elbe River. A canvascovered radio truck without an antenna was observed at a well next to the mast, and next to the radio truck was a tent for about 12 men. 25X1 2. On 11 September, two temporary buildings and several piles of runway mats were observed at the field on the ground which was surrounded by a fence about 2.5 meters high. Work was apparently being conducted in the temporary buildings. Trucks and next tellers loaded with runway mats were observed passing through the entrance to the field coming from the direction of Wudicke. Several piles of runway mats were observed on the area of Wudicke reilroad station. 3. A telephone line or 6 wires, suspended on newly erected wooden masts, extended along the southern edge of Wudicke-Schoenhauser Damm road. About 1 km from Schoenhauser Damm, Soviet soldders wearing red-bordered black epoule ts worked on the extension of the line toward Schoenhauser Damm. 25X1 4. At 11 a.m. on 16 September, about 15 soldiers, wearing black-bordered blue annuled to the airfield on two full-track prime movers towing two trailers each. The mats were stored near the temporary buildings on the southern edge of the installation. At 1215 p.m., the two prime movers and the truck with the hoisting gear, which had been used near the rallroad station at truck with the hoisting gear, which had been used near the rallroad station.
25X1 1. On 2 September 1952, individual soldiers were observed near the temporary buildings at Schoenhauser Damm airfield. The piles of runway mats were unchanged.	(LIPING SEE	mak mininggregatif dipatraktis international and an enternational section of the					mratre.
25X1 1. On 2 September 1952, individual soldiers were observed near the temporary buildings at Schoenhauser Damm sirfield. The piles of runway mats were unchanged.		OBEL BREITSBOCK STUTBERSET I TE BENNAME WEI HELD BESCHLING AM OND A KRAMMETS SEER HYTELD BREAM DE				,
25X1 1. On 2 September 1952, individual soldiers were observed near the temporary buildings at Schoenhauser Damm airfield. The piles of runway mats were unchanged. 1	AND THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPER	Appeler of Control of American September 1997 and Control of Control of American September 1997 and American Septe
25X1 1. On 2 September 1952, individual soldiers were observed near the temporary buildings at Schoenhauser Damm airfield. The piles of runway mats were unchanged. no mats had been laid. A six-wire telephone line was observed running both from Schoenhausen and Wudicke to the airfield. In Schoenhausen there was a mast with a platform and a box in which the lines net. One line each extended from the mast toward Havelberg and toward Stendal via the Elbe River. A canvascovered radio truck without an antenna was observed at a wall next to the mast, and next to the radio truck was a tent for about 12 men. 25X1 2. On 11 September, two temporary buildings and several piles of runway mats were observed at the field on the ground which was surrounded by a fence about 2.5 meters high. Work was apparently being conducted in the temporary buildings. Trucks and caterpillar tractors towing low-platform trailers loaded with runway mats were observed passing through the entrance to the field coming from the direction of Wudicke. Several piles of runway mats were observed on the area of Wudicke railroad station. 3. A telephone line or 6 wires, suspended on newly erected wooden masts, extended along the southern edge of Mudicke-Schoenhauser Damm. Soviet soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaule ts worked on the extension of the line toward Schoenhauser Damm. 25X1 4. At 11 a.m. on 16 September, about 15 soldiers, wearing black-bordered blue enamleta. unloaded runway mats from two boxcars at Vudicke railroad station hauled to the airfield on two full-track prime movers towing two trailers each. The mats were stored near the temporary buildings on the southern edge of the installation. At 12:15 p.m., the two prime movers and the truck with the hoisting gear, which had been used near the railroad station,	Becomes and the survey of the	NI HANNI (MORNIC TIDE ECCOPY) TO SECULUINI A CONTINUE A CONTINUE ACCIDE ACUNI ACUNI ACCIDENTA CONTICUE ACCIDENTA	nder pap v almopilation of Spanic But Stockholm LLL V But NOS TO A NAV 28 LET TOWN HOUSE THE PARTY.			mendala mendalahkan kedanasak kemelanya disebagai kepada kepada kepada kepada kepada kepada kepada kepada kepa	name:
25X1 1. On 2 September 1952, individual soldiers were observed near the temporary buildings at Schoenhauser Damm airfield. The piles of runway mats were unchanged. no mats had been laid. A six-wire telephone line was observed running both from Schoenhausen and Wudicke to the airfield. In Schoenhausen there was a mast with a platform and a box in which the lines net. One line each extended from the mast toward Havelberg and toward Stendal via the Elbe River. A canvascovered radio truck without an antenna was observed at a wall next to the mast, and next to the radio truck was a tent for about 12 men. 25X1 2. On 11 September, two temporary buildings and several piles of runway mats were observed at the field on the ground which was surrounded by a fence about 2.5 meters high. Work was apparently being conducted in the temporary buildings. Trucks and caterpillar tractors towing low-platform trailers loaded with runway mats were observed passing through the entrance to the field coming from the direction of Wudicke. Several piles of runway mats were observed on the area of Wudicke railroad station. 3. A telephone line or 6 wires, suspended on newly erected wooden masts, extended along the southern edge of Mudicke-Schoenhauser Damm. Soviet soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaule ts worked on the extension of the line toward Schoenhauser Damm. 25X1 4. At 11 a.m. on 16 September, about 15 soldiers, wearing black-bordered blue enamleta. unloaded runway mats from two boxcars at Vudicke railroad station hauled to the airfield on two full-track prime movers towing two trailers each. The mats were stored near the temporary buildings on the southern edge of the installation. At 12:15 p.m., the two prime movers and the truck with the hoisting gear, which had been used near the railroad station,					258	1
1. On 2 September 1952, individual soldiers were observed near the temporary buildings at Schoenhauser Damm airfield. The piles of runway mats were unchanged						1	•
2. On 11 September, two temporary buildings and several piles of runway mats were observed at the field on the ground which was surrounded by a fence about 2.5 meters high. Work was apparently being conducted in the temporary buildings. Trucks and caterpillar tractors towing low-platform trailers loaded with runway mats were observed passing through the entrance to the field coming from the direction of Wudicke. Several piles of runway mats were observed on the area of Wudicke railroad station. 3. A telephone line or 6 wires, suspended on newly erected wooden masts, extended along the southern edge of Wudicke-Schoenhauser Damm road. About 1 km from Schoenhauser Damm, Soviet soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaule ts worked on the extension of the line toward Schoenhauser Damm. 25X1 4. At 11 a.m. on 16 September, about 15 soldiers, wearing black-bordered blue enauleta, unloaded runway mats from two boxcars at Vudicke railroad station hauled to the airfield on two full-track prime movers towing two trailers each. The mats were stored near the temporary buildings on the southern edge of the installation. At 12:15 p.m., the two prime movers and the truck with the hoisting gear, which had been used near the railroad station,		covered radio truck	without an antenn	a was obse	rved at a wal	1 next to tended along the southern edge of Mudicke-Schoenhauser Damm road. About 1 km from Schoenhauser Damm, Soviet soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaule ts worked on the extension of the line toward Schoenhauser Damm. 25X1 At 11 a.m. on 16 September, about 15 soldiers, wearing black-bordered blue enaulets, unloaded runway mats from two boxcars at l'udicke railroad station The runway mats were hauled to the airfield on two full-track prime movers towing two trailers each. The mats were stored near the temporary buildings on the southern edge of the installation. At 12:15 p.m., the two prime movers and the truck with the hoisting gear, which had been used near the railroad station,	2.	were observed at the about 2.5 meters high rary buildings. True tors towing low-plate passing through the education. Several pill	field on the grounds. Work was appeared to the finance to the files of runway mats	nd which wently being ed with ruled coming	es surrounded g conducted i and cater mway mats wer from the dir	by a fence n the tempo- pillar trac- e observed ection of
25X1 At 11 a.m. on 16 September, about 15 soldiers, wearing black-bordered blue ensulets, unloaded runway mats from two boxcars at l'udicke railroad station The runway mats were hauled to the airfield on two full-track prime movers towing two trailers each. The mats were stored near the temporary buildings on the southern edge of the installation. At 12:15 p.m., the two prime movers and the truck with the hoisting gear, which had been used near the railroad station,	3.	tended along the sout from Schoenhauser Day	thern edge of Wudi mm. Soviet soldier	.cke-Schoer 's wearing	nhauser Damm x red-bordered	black epaule ts	cm
25X1 ensulets, unloaded runway mats from two boxcars at ludicke railroad station The runway mats were hauled to the airfield on two full-track prime movers towing two trailers each. The mats were stored near the temporary buildings on the southern edge of the installation. At 12:15 p.m., the two prime movers and the truck with the hoisting gear, which had been used near the railroad station,		At 11 a.m. on 16 Sep	tember, about 15 :	oldiers,	wearing black-	-bordered blue
each. The mats were stored near the temporary buildings on the southern edge of the installation. At 12:15 p.m., the two prime movers and the truck with the hoisting gear, which had been used near the railroad station,		ensulets, unloaded r	unway mats from to	vo boxcars	at Vudicke ra	illroad station by mats were each. The mats were edge of the installa- truck with the hoist	stored near the tion. At 12:15 p ing gear, which h	temporary l .m., the to ad been use	buildings on two prime moves and near the re	the southern rs and the milroad station,	,
			.		-

	SECRET/
	- 2 -	25X1
5.	was covered with grass which was about soil had been graded and rolled. Six mats, each pile consisting of about 9 observed at the southern edge of the dings.	teen piles of gray-green runway 0 bundles of 20 mats each, were
25X1	Comments Information on the ar at Schoenhauser Demm sirfield was pre that the mats will now be laid. The sufficient to lay a runway 1000 meter	reported number of mats may be

25X1.

SECRET/